

NORTH CAROLINA BOYS CHOIR, INC
Contract for Concert Choir membership

I, _____, accept membership for my son, named _____, in the name of parent / legal guardian name of chorister
North Carolina Boys Choir (hereafter referred to as "the choir"). I also understand that I am accepting the commitments of the choir by his acceptance of membership.

- I. I, _____, will stay in the choir through the spring semester of _____,
chorister fills in own name during which time I will abide by all rules and regulations of the choir.
- II. I am committed to the full payment of all requested fees, amounting to $600 yearly tuition, plus all Touring and Summer Music Camp fees. I am also committed to participating in all of the aforementioned activities, which are carried out by the parents of the choir for the benefit of the choir, for the duration of my son's participation of the activities of the choir, as stated above. The fundraising activities include volunteering on the choir's committees and sub-committees.
- III. I understand that permission to be excused from any performance, tour, camp, or any other major function of the choir is granted only at the discretion of the Musical Director. Such permission is granted rarely, and only for illness or family emergency.
- IV. I understand that an acceptable and honorable discharge from the choir will take place only after the completion of the spring semester of _____, at which time my son may choose not to continue. Departure at any other time, without the permission of the Musical Director, will be considered dishonorable and will result in a full expulsion from the choir. All fees for the remainder of the membership term, as stated in section ii of this contract, become due and to be paid immediately. Information concerning such expulsions is not withheld from the choir organization, or from anyone who should inquire about the status or performance of such a former choirboy.
- V. I understand that attendance at the Summer Music Camp in July of each year is required for all Concert Choir members and that participation in such automatically commits my son to membership in the choir for the following choir year (September through June), and under the same binding commitments as stated in this contract.
- VI. I understand that the choir will provide exemplary musical excellence, in which discipline will play a strong role, for my son. He will be given opportunities for travel and for performances before varied audiences. Due to the choir's continued pursuit of excellence, my son, based on his efforts, should make progress toward the development of self-confidence, self-sufficiency and poise.
